KYLE PAYNE RACING

KYLE #82

ANDY IBBOTT

“Having worked with so many riders over my career, from track day enthusiasts at the California Superbike School to MotoGP riders, training Kyle presented a new challenge being only 11 years old when we first met in the autumn of 2018. This was the first time I had taken on the challenge of coaching such a young rider and, honestly, was not sure what to expect.

Kyle took me by surprise! Such a willingness to listen, experiment and take constructive criticism, which enabled quick progress through the different coaching stages. As rider and coach relationship, we clicked immediately and worked throughout the 2019 season resulting in becoming the British MiniGP Champion that same year.

I have continued working with Kyle every season since helping him to adapt to the bigger bikes and GP circuits of Spain and look forward to continuing with Kyle in 2025. I see a lot of potential in Kyle, he reminds me a lot of a young Thomas Luthi and our journey to the 2005 125 GP championship win.”

Rider coach, public speaker, and former managing director of the California Superbike School. Andy is also the author of MotoGP Performance Riding Techniques publication and book.

I first started working a little with Kyle in the 2021 season through my Performance principles course and then to help him meet his challenges of 2022 we continued on a one-on-one basis throughout the 2023/24 season. His determination and focus makes him easy to work with and proud to have been part of such a successful season. I look forward to continuing the journey together and to see what is possible in 2025”

THE JOURNEY SO FAR

Kyle's love for motorcycle racing began at the age of 9 when he had the opportunity to ride a mini moto at the Scott Reading M4 academy. At 10 years old, much later than most, he undertook his rookie racing year on a Blata Mini Moto finishing 3rd overall taking 4 wins and 9 podiums in the British FAB championship.

Graduating to a geared Metrakit Mini GP bike in 2018 he secured his first podium in his 4th race meeting and went on to be crowned British Mini GP champion in 2019 championship at the age of 12 years old with 3 race wins and 12 podiums.

Since becoming British Champion, the opportunity came to compete in the Spanish ESBK Championship with Cuna de Campeones, aboard a Yamaha 250 powered MIR bike. Competing on GP style tracks around the country led to finishing 8th overall and with the highlight taking his maiden Podium in Jerez.

2022 resulted in Podiums in the French OGP championship including the iconic Magny Cours as well and double podium at his home track Pau Arnos aboard his Moto 5 machine. 2023 Kyle joined Ilusion racing and his completed first rookie season in the European Talent cup gaining massive experience as well as picking up a further 2 podiums and a pole position in French OGP championship wildcard entry.

Q. Biggest challenge to date?

A. Getting my confidence back in 2022, the end of 2021 was tough with injuries and missing the last races of the season and started 2022 on a new bike and in a new paddock added to the challenge... but we got there race by race and I am ready for 2025
